

I read about Sinclairs planned broadcast and am apalled at their approach. I have been disgusted at the campaign for president so far and this is a blatent example of a licensed business going too far.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
